

Transitional Living Profile

Date: 01/22/10

Name: OxfordHouse Rockridge

Gender: Women with children

Specific location:

Southeast Austin
2306 Rockridge, Austin TX, 78744

How close is the nearest bus stop? Four blocks #333

Your ideal or desired resident:

Women who are searching to grow, using a twelve step program

Size of house/layout: Four bedrooms, two bath to accommodate six women

Handicap accessible? Not at this time

Fee structure: Monthly fee, $450 for adults and $100 per child. Rent may be paid in weekly, bi-weekly or monthly payments. Includes all bills, food staples (rice, beans, coffee, etc), free long distance, internet, cable (in rooms), and the basics (laundry soap, cleaning supplies, toilet paper) Move-in cost - $400 ($200 non-refundable application fee and $200 credited towards first months rent) DHS vouchers accepted.

Philosophy: We are a twelve step recovery house with zero tolerance. Oxford Houses operates democratically and is financially self-supported, follows the Oxford House manual and the traditions. Oxford House Rockridge provides a safe haven to assure comfortable recovery from addiction-- which is the sole reason for Oxford House.

Structure: Based around a program of recovery using any 12 step program.

12 Step schedule:

Internal- Wednesday 8:30 p.m. House meeting

External- All residents are asked to attend three meetings weekly, have a sponsor and work the steps.

Contact Information: Betsy Gaines (512) 769-9086
House Phone: (512) 291-6455
rockridge@austin-oxfordhouses.org

References: Randy Miller (512) 762-6397
Blaze Callahan (512) 589-1192
Ian Ramirez (512) 939-6320

